Even when the governmental inspector made his ounds Company C was unable to assemble and pass the inspection. It is thought though that this year with a commissioned officer in town who will attend regularly and take charge of each drill, things will move along autos. much more smoothly. By attending a certain per cent of the scheduled drills a member can draw pay for the total number they participate in. This will no doubt be another good draw ing card and a good majority of the boys have already signified their willingness to help matters along.
